Abstract

Aim: The effect of two jumping competitions, performed in two consecutive weekends, on serum creatine phosphokinase (CPK), aspartate aminotransferase (AST), and lactate dehydrogenase (LDH), urea, creatinine (CREA) concentrations were evaluated in 12 healthy jumper horses.

Materials and Methods: Blood sampling was performed before the 1st day of competition (T₀), at the end of each show (J₁, J₂), on the day after the competition (T₁); the same sampling plan was followed during the second weekend (J₃, J₄ and T₂).

Results: One-way repeated measures analysis of variance showed an increase in CPK at J₁ and J₂ respect to T₀ and at J₃ and J₄ respect to all other time points (p<0.05). LDH activity showed an increase at J₂ respect to T₀, at J₃ respect to T₀, J₁, J₂ and at J₄ respect to all other time points (p<0.05). AST values increased at J₁ and J₂ respect to T₀ (p<0.05). A significant increase of CREA was found at J₃ respect to T₀, T₁ and J₁ and at J₄ respect to all other time points (p<0.05). A decrease in serum urea levels was found at J₁ respect to T₀, at J₄ and J₄ respect to T₀ and T₁; at T₂ respect to T₀ (p<0.05). A positive correlation between urea/CPK (p=0.0042, r²=0.030), LDH/CPK (p<0.0001, r²=0.535), CREA/LDH (p<0.0001, r²=0.263), CREA/CPK (p<0.0001, r²=0.496) was observed.

Conclusion: Our results suggest that 5 days recovery period between the two consecutive competition weekends is insufficient to allow muscle recovery and avoid potential additional stress. The findings obtained in this study improve the knowledge about metabolic changes occurring in athlete horse during the competition to identify muscle alterations following show jumping competitions.

Meeting Minutes

Submitted by Alyson Callahan

President Sue McBeth called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m.

Minutes
It was moved, seconded and approved to accept the minutes as published in the September newsletter.

Treasurer’s Report
Submitted by Carol Hartlaub

Membership
Debbie Boeh reported the club has 30 members one of which is new

*Reminder to all members to sign-up for the 2017 show year which starts November 1, 2016.

OLD BUSINESS
1) The Dressage Company Show
Due to unforeseen circumstances the show was cancelled. Members who had signed up to volunteer at the show will still receive their three hours. The club is aware that some people needed this show as their third venue to meet the YEA qualifications. For the riders impacted by that, two proposals were put onto the floor.

Proposal A: Take the lowest score from the two scores you already have for YEA and use that score as your third score as well. Average the three to get your final percentage.

Proposal B: Use your two scores you already have and a score from one of the same shows but a different class and average the three scores to get your final percentage.

It was put up to vote. 13 members for Proposal A and 1 member for Proposal B. It was then moved, seconded and approved to use Proposal A.

Carol Hartlaub says Miami would like to have a show with the club next year in May. The club agreed it would be a good idea.
Due to the abundance of awards from the show, the club has agreed to pass them out to the first 24 members who attend the Banquet in December. You must be a 2017 TDC member to receive a gift.
2) Freestyle Clinic
The clinic was cancelled due to not enough people signing up. Edie Bryan talked to Terri about maybe trying to reschedule it for later next year. Feedback from people was that there was a lot of confusion about the difference between the Saturday and Sunday activities.
It was brought to the clubs attention that maybe we should have a questionnaire at the Banquet to find out what activities, either educational or interactive, people would be interested in for the 2017 year.

2017 Officer Nominations
Following nominations and elections, the elected club officers for 2017 beginning their term of office on November 1, 2016 are:
